

Kesava Reddy Mannur FRCS is consultant bariatric and laparoscopic surgeon in London. He started his laparoscopic surgical work in 1990 and bariatric surgery in 1998. He established the bariatric surgical unit at Homerton University Hospital, London in 2003 and developed this into one of the leading-reputed centres in bariatric surgery in the UK. He was the Director of Bariatric Surgery and consultant surgeon at Homerton University Hospital until 2017. He operates in The Wellington hospital and Spire Hospitals in UK.

Mr Mannur specializes in Gastric Bypass, Banded Gastric Bypass, One anastomosis Gastric bypass, sleeve Gastrectomy, Duodenal Switch, Gastric band and Revisional surgeries for weight gain following bariatric surgery especially gastric band or gastric plication to gastric bypass or Sleeve Gastrectomy, and gastric bypass to Duodenal Switch or SADI-S. He also performs Sleeve gastrectomy with fundoplication. He has performed more than 4.500 bariatric surgeries with minimal morbidity and mortality.

He has conducted 6 international bariatric surgery symposiums and 7 Bariatric training courses in Homerton Hospital, London. He has been training a lot of surgeons in bariatric surgery. He has been presenting his work both at the national and international obesity surgery conferences and has work published in peer-reviewed obesity surgery journals.

Mr Mannur served in the British Obesity & Metabolic Surgery Society BOMSS council, UK. He has also been an advisor to NICE guidelines, UK.